Vacation lodging on the Oregon Coast

This year we are raffling a 3-day stay on the Oregon Coast in a beautiful vacation home in Port Watch.

This light, airy, new home is the perfect spot for a family get together or a romantic getaway. The name Port Watch suits this vacation home perfectly. Sitting up on the bluff above the Port of Port Orford, you have a beautiful view of the Pacific Ocean. Laze around this comfortably furnished home or walk down to the beach, town or down to the dock where you can crab, fish, whale watch or have a bite to eat at a local restaurant. The home has three bedrooms with 2 queens, 2 fold out twins, a sleeper sofa and two roll away beds and two bathrooms. Also has a ping pong table, brand new gas BBQ, flat screen TV and DVD, internet access and washer and dryer—it's fully loaded for the perfect getaway. Dates are subject to availability. Tickets are $10 each or three for $25.00 and will be sold by volunteers and at the ECOSS Information Table. The winner will be announced at 7:45. Vacation lodging donated by South Park resident and ECOSS supporter Deborah McNeil.
